

Updated WUN Impact Statement, Highlights & List of Publications - World Narcolepsy Day 2024

September 22, 2024 - For World Narcolepsy Day 2024, Wake Up Narcolepsy (WUN) is releasing updated documents showcasing the impact of the $1.39 million the organization has donated to Narcolepsy research since 2008.

The full impact statement gives an in-depth look at the funding and how it relates to each project, as well as quotes from principal investigators.

The highlights and publications list break it down into sections to be more accessible to a wider community.

Both documents can be found on the Featured Research page of WUN's website.
